EMAIL: copyright@airstreamcomm.net

Please send any allegations of copyright infringement to the above address. A notice of alleged copyright infringement to the Designated Agent must comply with the DMCA and must have, at a minimum, the following information:

- a) A physical or digital signature of the owner of an exclusive copyright right or the owner's authorized agent.
- b) A description of the works claimed to be infringed.
- c) A description of the allegedly infringing works or site sufficient to enable the Designated Agent to find them.
- d) Sufficient information to enable the Designated Agent to contact the complaining party.
- e) A statement that the complaining party believes in good faith that the use of the material is not authorized by the copyright owner, the owner's agent, or the Copyright Act.
- f) A statement that the information provided by the complaining party in the notice is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner of one or more of the exclusive copyright rights.

Upon receiving proper notification of an alleged copyright infringement, we will review your claim and take appropriate action in accordance with our Acceptable Use Policy. If you have received notice from us of a claim of infringement made in relation to materials you placed on the Service or Network and you believe in good faith that such claim has been wrongly made against you by the claiming party, you may submit a counter-notice to bring about a private dispute between you and the party claiming copyright infringement. You should provide your counter-notification to:
